[英文提要]

The relationship between reason and faith is a fundamental theme, a point of tension and contention in the history of Christian philosophy, Western philosophy, and of Western culture as a whole. Given the tenets of modern culture, the relationship between reason and faith continues to be a hotly debated issue in the cntemporary study of religion and philosophy of religion among philosophers and theologians. From the discussion and critique of three major contemporary thinkers—Wolfhart Pannenberg, Hans Küng and Paul Tillich—this article proposes topics for further research, including the study of historical and cultural contexts, basic propositions, key concepts, and recent methodological development.

　　理性与信仰的关系问题,可谓基督教哲学史、西方哲学史乃至整个西方文化史的主要线索、根本张力或基本矛盾,从古到今一直引导或逼使着哲学家、神学家们深入反思"理性"和"信仰"的本质及其关系;而理性与信仰在近现代文化背景下的剧烈冲突,则使二者的关系再次成为基督教哲学论坛上的论争焦点。本文旨在概括
